Democratic Majority for Israel

Dear Friends:

I am grateful for and humbled by your statement of support for this campaign and my candidacy for president. It fills me with pride to have the endorsement of so many incredible communities whose efforts to secure a brighter future and a more just society inspire me to keep fighting.

I'm honored to have earned the early support of the Democratic Majority for Israel, and your continued engagement will be vital as we build toward the general election. DMFI has been a powerful voice standing up for our party's principles and advocating for a strong enduring partnership between Israel and the U.S., grounded in our democratic values. That has been my firm conviction since my first visit to Israel in 1973, and I look forward to continuing to strengthen the partnership between our nations as president, including by working toward a two-state solution that results in a secure, democratic, and Jewish State of Israel living side-by-side in peace with a Palestinian state.

You know, as I do, just how much promise our country has—and the importance of not taking a single vote for granted. That's the kind of campaign we're running and I'm proud to stand side-by-side with you in the battle for the soul of this great nation.

Thanks again for your support, and for your service to our country. We're lucky to have your voice and your leadership.

Sincerely,
